TRAVEL FOR THE ARTS

Travel for the Arts was first established in 1988 for the Friends of Covent Garden, to send tours to the world's legendary opera houses and music festivals. We also specialise in creating bespoke tours for private groups and arranging 'à la Carte' itineraries for individuals. Best available tickets to performances are included, often featuring the star performers of the day. All details including hotels, meals and excursions are hand-picked for each tour and travel arrangements are paced to ensure the best experience possible. Travellers are accompanied by knowledgeable tour managers and in some cases, expert lecturers.
